BismilLahirRahmaanirRaheem

1. Life is never what it seems. If you are a positive person, and perfectly believe in your Rabb( Allah), you'd be amazed when He rescues you from situations you never could have imagined that you'd come out of
2. Muraqqabah/ Watchfulness is a station I fear somewhat to say the least. In this state, you know that Allah is watching you and every state of your existence. Be good and call on Allah for whatever good it is you want, in this world and the hereafter
3. Tawakkul:

If you trust in Allah the way a drowning person clutches at straw hoping for Allah to save them, then Allah would rescue you just as that drowning man clutches at straw( for lack of a better analogy)
